

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT TO OWNERS OBTAINING BUILDING PERMITS

101.65(1r) of the Wisconsin Statutes requires municipalities that enforce the Uniform Dwelling Code to provide an owner who applies for a building permit with a statement advising the owner that:

If the owner hires a contractor to perform work under the building permit and the contractor is not bonded or insured as required under Ss. 101.654(2)(a), the following consequences might occur:

- (a) The owner may be held liable for any bodily injury to or death of others or for any damage to the property of others that arises out of the work performed under the building permit or that is caused by any negligence by the contractor that occurs in connection with the work performed under the building permit.

- (b) The owner may not be able to collect from the contractor damages for any loss sustained by the owner because of a violation by the contractor of the one and two family dwelling code or an ordinance enacted under Ss. 101.654(1)(a), because of any bodily injury to or death of others or damage to the property of others that arises out of the work performed under the building permit or because of any bodily injury to or death of others or damage to the property of others that is caused by any negligence by the contractor that occurs in connection with the work performed under the building permit.

Additionally, Wisconsin Statute: 101.66 Compliance and penalties. (1) "Every builder, designer and owner shall use building materials, methods and equipment which are in conformance with the one- and 2-family dwelling code."

Consequently:

If the owner signs the Permit Application, the owner is held responsible for any code violations, Orders for Correction and/or citation(s) that may be issued in association with the Permit.

If a contractor signs the Permit Application as agent for the owner, the contractor is held responsible for any code violations, Orders for Correction and/or citation(s) that may be issued in association with the Permit.

Additional Responsibilities for Owners of Projects Disturbing One or More Acres of Soil

I understand that this project is subject to ch. NR 151 regarding additional erosion control and storm-water management and will comply with those standards.
